About this Property

Occupying the entire top floor of an impressive period building, this beautifully presented penthouse is accessed via a private lift that opens directly into your own entrance hall. The property is in immaculate condition throughout, offering a sense of space, light, and comfort.

The accommodation includes two generously proportioned double bedrooms, both benefiting from extensive built-in wardrobes and serene rural views. A newly fitted kitchen/breakfast room offers a stylish and practical space for daily living, while the expansive lounge/dining room features a newly installed log burner, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. There are two large, luxurious bathrooms—both with underfloor heating—completing the refined interior. Cont'd...
