About this Property

Spacious Period Maisonette – Two Double Bedrooms with Parking

Occupying the top two floors of an imposing period residence, this generously proportioned maisonette sits on a quiet residential road, just a short walk from leading schools and the centre of St Helier. Freshly redecorated and newly carpeted throughout, the property is ready to move straight into. High ceilings and a wealth of retained period features give the home a real sense of character and light, while both bedrooms are well-proportioned doubles with ample built-in wardrobe space.

Outside, residents enjoy a shared rear garden laid to lawn and framed by mature trees, along with two private parking spaces to the front, a rare advantage this close to town.
