About this Property

A delightfully presented second-floor one-bedroom apartment, recently refurbished throughout and ideally located in the sought-after Five Oaks area. The property offers a bright entrance hall with intercom system, leading through to a newly fitted kitchen and a well-proportioned living space. The bedroom is comfortable and well-sized, complemented by a fresh, modern finish across the apartment. Externally, there is the benefit of one designated parking space, while the service charges remain exceptionally low due to in-house management. There is also a shared external area with multiple uses.
