About this Property

Large traditional family home full of charm and character with a rural aspect, situated down a quiet country lane in the parish of Trinity.

This beautifully converted property comprises: 4 double bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, 3 reception rooms and a store room, each very spacious and well presented with exceptional character.

The kitchen has all the necessary utilities with the added benefit of a large Aga along with a separate laundry room and an adjoining door into the conservatory.

The living and dining room both have their own wood burners for those cooler winter days however, the property benefits from underfloor heating throughout.

The property has a large south/west facing garden laid to lawn and parking in the yard for 2 cars.

Available early September. Pets by arrangement. Entitled/Licensed.
