About this Property

An elegant detached residence offering generous and flexible accommodation within approximately two acres of private grounds. The house provides four well-proportioned bedrooms, with scope to create a fifth, alongside two/three reception rooms suited to both formal entertaining and everyday living.

The grounds are a particular highlight, offering privacy, open space and a stable and tack room, ideal for equestrian use or those seeking a rural setting without compromise. There is a double garage and extensive parking with the property.

Set in a peaceful location, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a substantial family home with land and privacy.
